HOSPITAL.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

In pursuance of the appointment of last Conference, we the Hospital Commissioners, beg leave to report, that on June 23, 1910, we met the commissioners of the Memphis and Mississippi Conference in Memphis, Tenn., and after a thorough discussion of the practicability of the building of a Methodist hospital to serve the large territory embraced in the Conferences named, agreed to build a hospital in the city of Memphis to cost not less than $250,000.00, work to begin as soon as the sum of $75,000.00 is assured. At this meeting a local hospital committee of three was appointed to look into the matter thoroughly from a local standpoint, and to report its findings to this commission. This committee has reported that they know of a lot with suitable brick residence on the same and that the property can be bought for a very reasonable consideration. Following out an agreement entered into with the commissioners of the above named Conferences, we recommend that a board of five trustees, three lay and two clerical, be elected by this Conference, upon nomination of the Bishop, with power to act with similar trustees from the interested Conferences. In case of a vacancy, we recommend that the Bishop in charge appoint the man or men to serve until the ensuing annual Conference. We also recommend that if the other Conferences join in this action, the trustees meet at the earliest possible date to perfect all plans for launching the enterprise. The Memphis Conference has already passed a similar paper. We approve the action of the joint commission in requesting Mr. J. R. Pepper and Rev. H. B. Johnson to visit the White River Conference and ask them to co-operate in this work.

Respectfully submitted,

R. A. MEEK,
JNO. H. SHERARD,
J. D. BARBEE.

Orphans' Home—The Board of Directors of the Mississippi Methodist Orphans' Home made the following report, which was adopted after addresses by Hon. J. S. Sexton and I. C. Enochs:

ORPHANS' HOME.

It is with profound gratitude to our Heavenly Father for His blessed providence that we bring you the following report of the affairs of our Mississippi Orphans' Home:

This has been a year of unbroken peace and prosperity with the Home. The administration has been satisfactory in every respect. We cannot say too much in praise of Brother W. M. Williams and his noble wife for the splendid services that they are rendering God and humanity in their difficult and trying positions.

The health conditions at the home have been remarkable. While some of the inmates have been sick, there has not been a case of serious illness at the Home during the year.

The school is in the hands of four excellent Christian teachers and is maintained for a session of eight months each year. In addition to this three of our boys and three of our girls are in our colleges, and their reports show that all are doing good work.

The spiritual welfare of the children is looked after with great care. Every Sunday they have Sunday School, Epworth League and preaching at the Home. Twenty-one have united with our Church this year, making a total membership among the children of one hundred and thirty-six.

The two handsome new buildings, one for the school and the other for dormitory use—which were made possible by the generosity of Dr. Luther Sexton of New Orleans, La., and Mr. W. M. Lampton of Magnolia, Miss., will add greatly to the convenience and capacity of the institution. When completed with water, heat and light, they will have cost $35,280.00. Then must follow some additional expense in properly furnishing them. Mr. I. C. Enochs, Mr. J. S. Sexton and Dr. Luther Sexton have rendered great service in securing donations of building materials for this work, and to them we extend our hearty thanks.

The manager's books show the following:

Temperance—The Committee on Temperance made the following report, which was adopted after an amendment striking out the word "importation" in Resolution 2:

TEMPERANCE.

We are gratified at the stand that Mississippi has taken in the matter of the prohibition of the nefarious liquor traffic. Our excellent laws only need to be enforced to free our people from the curse of the outlawed business. We commend our officials, especially our judges and district attorneys, for the war they have waged against violations of our prohibition laws, and earnestly urge the enforcement of the severest penalties against violators, believing a jail sentence in all cases of conviction to be the surest way to break up the blind tiger evil. No law, however, can be effective until our people become abstainers from all intoxicants. Individual prohibition will make prohibition laws unnecessary.

The great struggle of prohibition is ahead of us. The concerted effort of a liquor traffic, with millions of money in its hands, to overthrow all existing prohibitory laws, can be successfully met only by the concerted action of the Christian people. If we do not nominate the men who are to serve our people in the next legislature, the liquor traffic will see to it that men are elected who will repeal our prohibition laws. Six months hence it will be too late to act. We therefore submit the following resolutions for your adoption:

Resolved, That we will use all our influence to secure the nomination of candidates for the next legislature who are pledged beforehand to state-wide prohibition.

2nd, That we urge upon the next legislature the submission to the people, not later than the general election of 1912, an amendment to the Constitution forbidding the manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquors within this state.

Respectfully submitted,

N. E. WILROY, for Committee.

Time Fixed—Consideration of the report of the Board of Education was made the order of the day for 10 o'clock a. m., Saturday.

Admitted into Full Connection—The order of the day having arrived, the Bishop called Question 4: "Who are admitted into full connection?" A. G. Hall, A. L. Davenport, D. H. Crowson and J. R. Bright, having been for two years on trial, and having been passed by the examining committee and recommended by the Committee on Admissions, were called before the bar of the Conference, addressed by the Bishop in a most impressive discourse on the character of the ministry, and by unanimous vote received into full connection.

Character—The Bishop resumed the call of Question 22: "Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration?" E. E. Langford, T. W. Lewis, R. P. Neblett, W. R. Goudelock, R. M. Evans, W. J. Burt, R. H. B. Gladney, A. H. Williams, W. E. M. Brogan, T. H. Dorsey, J. A. Randolph, E. C. Sullivan, J. H. Holder and L. M. Broyles were examined and passed.

Lewis was called, he reported his work for the year and made brief remarks concerning his long connection with this Conference and of his love for the brethren and of his desire for their prayers in his behalf. The following resolution was adopted with reference to Bro. Lewis:

Resolved, That this Conference gives up Brother Lewis with deepest regret, and that we are reconciled to his transfer only in view of the fact that he goes to a larger field where his opportunity will be greatly enlarged, and we pray that in the good providence of God, the way may be opened for his return to us.

J. W. BOSWELL,
J. R. COUNTISS.

FINANCE.

The Joint Board of Finance made the following report, which was adopted:

We are gratified at the measure of success that has attended the effort of the Board to increase the collection for the Superannuate Endowment Fund. As shown by the report of our Treasurer, we have received this year on this fund, $678.30, which is $475.60 more than was collected last year. This shows the wisdom of the assessment plan, and we ask that the Conference again order an assessment upon each pastoral charge amounting to 1 per cent. of the pastor's salary and that the Presiding Elders see that it is apportioned by the District Stewards, as are the other assessments. We append financial report:

J. W. BELL, Chairman,
W. W. MITCHELL, Secretary,
P. T. CALLICOTT, Treasurer.

Dr. Geo. J. S. Brown addressed the Conference in behalf of the work of the American Bible Society.

The order of the day having arrived, the majority report of the Board of Education was heard and was, on motion, laid on the table till the minority report could be heard. The minority report was read and a motion to lay it on the table was lost by a vote of 53 to 59. The minority report was then offered as a substitute for that part of the majority report referring to athletics at Millsaps College, and granting inter-collegiate games under the control of the faculty and trustees, the minority report recommending that the request for inter-collegiate games be not granted. On motion the privileges of the floor were granted Maj. R. W. Millsaps and President Hull. These brethren both spoke in favor of the majority report, J. H. Mitchell and L. M. Lipscomb speaking against it. The time for adjournment having arrived, the Conference resolved to meet in afternoon session at 2 o'clock, leaving this matter pending.

Adjournment—Announcements were made, the doxology was sung, and Conference adjourned with the benediction by W. S. Lagrone.

FOURTH DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION.

Opening—Conference opened at the appointed hour with Bishop McCoy in the chair. "Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing," was sung.

Minutes—The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

J. H. Johnson, reserve from the Greenville District, was seated, vice W. B. Nichols, absent.

Education—The pending report of the Board of Education was taken up. The minority report was read for information. R. A. Meek moved to amend this report by adding to its last sentence the words "as to football." W. D. Wendel spoke against the proposed amendment. The pending question was ordered. The amendment was adopted by a vote of 67 to 51. The minority report, as amended, was then adopted. The report of the Board of Education was then adopted as a whole:

EDUCATION, No. 1.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

The General Board of Education of the M. E. Church, South, enters upon the new quadrennium of service with a distinct note of optimism and the spirit of progress.

It reports for the last quadrennium "substantial advancement" in all the departments of endeavor. Endowment campaigns in several sections of the Church have been waged with great success, so that we now have nine colleges with more than $100,000.00 endowment each; five, with more than $200,000.00; two which report more than $300,000.00, and Trinity, with more than $500,000.00.

The educational extension work has also prospered. All schools helped by the Board have made gains in support, equipment and attendance. The report shows that during the past quadrennium the collections on assessments for support of General Board have increased 240 per cent. over collections of the preceding quadrennium.

The last General Conference responded to this spirit of optimism and progress by raising the annual assessment for the educational work of the General Board from $50,000.00 to $95,000.00, and the General Board has apportioned to our Conference $2,764.00, which increases the assessment on our Conference about 95 per cent.

Your Board calls upon this body to consider these evidences of educational progress in our Church and to enter heartily upon this larger educational policy.

We note with commendable pride the evidences of progress shown in the reports we have of the institutions in which we are directly interested.

Vanderbilt University.

The contribution made to the Christian manhood, and the kingdom of Christ by the Vanderbilt University, commends this institution to us. Its increasing efficiency in all departments is cause for profound gratitude. We especially commend its theological department to all candidates for the ministry and the correspondence school to all our young preachers.

Millsaps College.

Millsaps College is the pride of Mississippi Methodism. Its auspicious beginning was a prophecy of its steady growth. The benefactions and constantly growing interest of its generous founder—Maj. R. W. Millsaps—the long and wise presidency of Dr. (now Bishop) W. B. Murrah, the unwavering loyalty of the Methodist ministers of Mississippi, the unity of purpose and power of its faculty have all contributed to its growth and prepared the way for the capable and accomplished new president, Dr. D. C. Hull. We congratulate the Board of Trustees upon the election of a president so thoroughly fitted to and equipped for the work of directing the affairs of the institution. His scholarship, his experience in the training of young men, his executive ability, his heartfelt and wise address to the tasks imposed him, guarantee a still larger success for the institution.

We assure him of our hearty support and unfaltering loyalty. We urge the payment of all outstanding subscriptions to the endowment fund and express the hope that the endowment resources shall yet be largely increased.

Grenada College.

The change in the presidency of Grenada College has in no wise hindered the progress of the college. President Clifton, who retired from the presidency of the institution at the close of the last session on his own initiative, gave eight years of self-sacrificing and able service to the college and his work was largely rewarded.

The Board of Trustees selected a man peculiarly fitted for his successor in the person of President J. R. Countiss. His devotion to high educational ideals, his scholastic attainments, his sympathy with aspiring young life, his power of self-investment in the lives of others will commend him to the Methodists of North Mississippi and insure success for our college for young women. We pledge to him our unswerving devotion and promise him our co-operation.

The college has already enrolled more boarding pupils than matriculated last year and the boarding patronage will be increased after the Christmas holidays. Thirty-seven local pupils are also attending the school. It is well organized in all its departments and is peculiarly fortunate in the personnel of its faculty. The religious life of the institution is gratifying. The college is in the best year of its history. We thank God, take courage and pray and plan for larger things for our college. Our girls deserve the best and we are striving to furnish them the best at Grenada College. Your Board calls attention of the body to the expiration of terms of service of the following members of the Board of Trustees: J. C. Park, H. C. Morehead, clerical; H. K. Barwick. We recommend the re-election of H. K. Barwick, lay, and the election of E. S. Lewis and W. L. Duren, clerical; and the election of R. M. Weaver, lay, to fill another vacancy which exists in roll of lay members.

Your Board calls the attention of this body to report No. 5 of the General Conference Committee on Education and commend to you resolution No. 1 in said report, which provides that "the Boards of Trust of all the schools, colleges and universities, which are the property of the Church, but whose trustees are not selected in conformity with the method proposed in paragraph 206 of the new discipline, are requested to conform the method of the selection of their trustees to the provisions of said paragraph, and unless prohibited by the laws of the state from so doing they are urged to secure such changes to their charters as will conform them to this law." Furthermore, "unless prohibited by the laws of the state they are urged to have inserted in their charters a trust clause declaring that the property is held in trust for the M. E. Church, South, to be used for educational purposes."

Inter-collegiate Athletics.

Believing it to be unwise and inexpedient to reopen the question of "inter-collegiate athletics" at Millsaps College, we respectfully recommend that the Conference do not grant the request of petitioners as to football.

Assessments.

Your Board notes the raising of the assessment for General Board purposes from $1,435.00 to $2,764.00, and provides for same by assessments upon the districts. It further recommends that the sum of $3,000.00 be assessed each for Grenada and Millsaps Colleges, provided there shall be made such a distribution of the collections on assessments that Millsaps and Grenada Colleges shall receive an apportionment of not less than $2,300.00 each.

Sunday Schools—The Sunday School Board made the following report, which was read and adopted:

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Sunday School is the most perfect organization within the Church, offering the best opportunity for teaching God's Word, and for training in effective service for Christ. Here we deal with impressionable minds ready to receive the great truths of the Bible, the fundamental doctrines of our Church and her world-wide missions. A few of our live superintendents are seizing this opportunity, revolutionizing their local communities, and sending out their influence into regions beyond.

Our Sunday School editors and publishing house furnish us with literature second to none, also the best helps that consecrated skill can devise for making the Sunday School the most effective agent in the evangelization of the world. We therefore urge our pastors and superintendents to introduce the graded lessons, the Adult Bible Class Quarterly, the Home Department Quarterly, the Visitor and Boys and Girls into every school.

Dr. Chappell says in his report: "One of the most remarkable of recent Sunday School movements is the development of the Organized Adult Class." Recognizing this fact, the General Conference provided for the federation of our Organized Adult Classes under the name of "The Wesley Adult Bible Class." Write to Dr. C. D. Bulla for full information as to the organization of these classes; to Dr. E. H. Rawlings for literature telling of the best methods of instructing the school in missions; to E. E. French for catalogue of Sunday School supplies; to Dr. H. M. Hamill for Teacher-training supplies; all of the above are in Nashville, Tenn.

In harmony with the plan of the General Board we ask that the executive committee of our Board be empowered to employ a suitable person to act as Field Secretary for our Conference during the ensuing year.

The Board, through its executive committee, offers a suitable reward for the best work exhibited at our next annual Conference by any Sunday School as a whole, for the best exhibited by any Cradle Roll, Graded Lessons, including beginners, primary, junior and intermediate departments; for the best exhibited by any Wesley Adult Bible Class. These offers are for classes organized this year.

The Board offers a Bible to the school raising the largest amount on Children's Day, one to the school raising the next largest amount, and one to the school raising the largest amount in each Presiding Elder's district, barring the two that receive the Bibles from the Conference at large.

Directors of Orphans' Home—J. M. Wyatt was re-elected director of the Orphans' Home and V. C. Curtis was elected to take the place of J. R. Countiss.

Missions—The Board of Missions made the following report, which was adopted:

MISSIONS.

The life that does not love is not Christian. The Church that has not the spirit of missions is not evangelical, neither will it have the approbation of Him who died to save the lost. Love is the fulfilling of the law. In the individual the power of affection over conduct and property is the measure of his religious life. In the Church, the presence or absence of love is known by the interest manifested in missionary enterprise. The probe, "How dwelleth the love of God in him," is as applicable to the Church as it is to the individual.

We are glad, therefore, to say to the Conference that the entire Church shows an increased interest in this important work. Several great meetings of different organizations last year show how strongly this missionary idea has taken hold upon the Christian world. The laymen in Canada and the United States, the Students' Volunteer Convention, and the great gathering at Edinburgh, "stamp the past year as the most memorable missionary year in all history," say our secretaries. They say further: "We began the last quadrennium with 168 missionaries in the field, including those of the Woman's Board, and closed with 208. These figures do not include the wives of missionaries. The members in mission fields increased from 17,633 to 25,210. The income for the last year of the quadrennium just closed exceeded the income of the last year of the preceding quadrennium by $257,765.00." "The income from all sources for the past year was $881,520.00. Of this amount $181,078.00 was from specials and other sources. The increase on assessment account, not including Woman's Board, was $5,476.00.

"The Board of Missions at its last annual meeting voted to increase the apportionment to the annual Conferences for foreign missions from $385,000.00 to $500,000.00."

This financial advancement is warranted by the needs and growth of the work. If $500,000.00 did no more than to instigate and foster the four great movements which Dr. A. P. Parker says are going on in China, namely, "The Anti-Opium Campaign," "The Educational Reform," "The Establishment of a Constitutional Government," and "The Emancipation of Women," that would be ample reason for the expenditure, yet many such significant results are seen in other places where missionaries are at work.

We notice with pleasure that last year two districts, out of eight in the Conference, paid all missionary assessments, and that 98 out of 160 pastoral charges paid all claims for missions. This year one district and 96 charges paid all claims for missions.

The assessments made by the Parent Board on our Conference is as follows: Foreign missions, $14,900.00; for the home department, $1,455.00. To this we add $7,815.00 for domestic missions.

The following amounts have been apportioned to the charges named for the year 1910-11:

Rosedale	$100	Mathiston Mission	200
Leland Mission	200	Cedar Bluff Mission.....	150
Tunica Mission	125	Starkville Mission	200

Coahoma Mission	150	Tishomingo Mission	150
Gunnison Mission	200	Iuka Mission	150
Glen Allen Mission.....	50	Dry Run Mission.....	150
Boyle Mission	100	Rienzi Mission	150
Pittsboro Mission	165	East Booneville Mission.....	100
Calhoun City and Vardaman		Baldwyn Mission	100

Derma Mission	100	Hatchie Mission	100

Smithville Mission	150	S. Side, Corinth, Mission.....	400
Okolona Mission	200	Ebenezer Mission	100
Fulton Mission	100	Rural Hill Mission.....	200
Randolph Mission	50	Kilmichael Mission	150
Ashland Mission	100	Slate Springs Mission.....	225

Pine Valley Mission.....	100	Mars Hill Mission.....	100
Mt. Pleasant Mission.....	200	Sturgis Mission	150
Pleasant Hill Mission.....	200	Bellefontaine Mission	100
Crenshaw Mission	200	Lambert Mission	200
Second Ch., Columbus, Mis....	200	Lake Cormorant Mission.....	100

The above assessments show a much greater responsibility than that carried last year. Can they be met? Your Board think they can on the following plan:

1. By a diligent and prayerful operation of "the every member campaign."

2. The plan indicated by the Board in the following resolution: "That each Presiding Elder be requested to appoint one live, active pastor in the district to give four or six weeks during the year in the mission fields of the district, preaching on the subject of missions, distributing missionary literature, and otherwise instructing the people on the subject of missions."

3. By undertaking the work with our hearts warmed and enthused by the presence of the Holy Spirit and by doing the work according to the will of Him who gave us the great commission.

We respectfully request the appointment of J. T. Lewis as Conference Missionary Secretary.

With hearts full of gratitude to God for past blessings, we resolutely set our faces to the future.

J. W. DORMAN, for Board.

Time Fixed—On motion the time of the Memorial Session was fixed for 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Epworth Leagues—The Epworth League Board made the following report, which was read and adopted:

EPWORTH LEAGUES.

In six more months the Epworth League will have attained its majority, having been made an organic part of our Church life May, 1890, at the General Conference in St. Louis. It has grown to be a mighty host of 150,000 of the choicest young people in Southern Methodism. It is evident that it is meeting a fundamental need of our young life. It is furnishing the long needed resource, vital, pious young men and women for teachers in Sunday School and leaders in every department of Church life.

A number of our preachers appreciate the opportunity the League affords of reaching and more fully developing the young life. Some new leagues have been organized during the year. Some of our country churches are making a success of the work. We have launched a campaign for 1,000 new members by June, 1911.

In June of this year a very successful Conference was held in Kosciusko, Miss. In October a conference of workers was held in West Point. Both of these proved the wisdom of the movement and encouraged us to plan for greater things in the coming year. A conference will be held June 15-17, 1911, in West Point, and a workers' conference will be planned in the near future.

The leagues of the Conference having paid the pledge to the Hiroshima Girls' School, have decided to continue the special work plan. After much prayer and thought as to the best interest of the young people we launched a plan to raise a loan fund to assist our young preachers, missionaries and deaconesses in securing an education. We have now in Millsaps College three young preachers that otherwise could not have been in school. Others are asking help that we are not able to give.

We beg the co-operation of our pastors and laymen, our missionary societies and our Sunday Schools in this worthy undertaking. We pledge ourselves to a most careful administration of this fund. We desire to call attention to the fact that Easter has been set apart for a number of years as Young People's Day. On this day let a suitable service be held, whether there be a league organization or not, and this great cause be brought before our people.

We heartily commend the enterprise and the earnest labors of our newly elected secretaries, Drs. Parker and Culbreath. They are making for us a most excellent paper in the Epworth Era. It is practical and helpful not only to the leaguers but to all our young people.

The League Board is now putting out a permanent Bible and Church Study course. This in addition to the number of pamphlets, the four other reading courses and the large number of recommended books afford an ample supply of varied and safe reading matter for our young people.

We are very much gratified to have the President of the General Epworth League Board as our Presiding Bishop at this Conference session. We are confident that the new League Board for North Mississippi will give him their hearty co-operation.

J. H. HOLDER, Secretary of Board.

Sabbath Observance—The Committee on Sabbath Observance made its report, which was amended by striking out the provision for a collection to be taken for the Sunday League of America, after which the report was adopted:

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

As predicated in the holy Bible the Sabbath was ordained for the rest and worship of man before his sin and fall. It was not an after-thought and subsequent provision for his recovery from sin, but a basic principle in the government of God for the moral development and culture of the race. It seeks not to restrict man in the legitimate endeavors and gratification of any of his real physical, intellectual, social or moral needs, but to direct him in the path of his loftiest achievements and noblest destiny. Not to institutionalize a day, but to protect man in the possession and rightful use of all his faculties, powers and endowments did the Lord and Giver of Life ordain and command the perpetual observance of the Sabbath. To the cavilling Pharisees, who by their extreme and unreasonable views on Sabbath observance were hindering the Church of God in its works of charity and mercy and impeding the religious progress of the race, Christ our Lord said: "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath."

And if before his sin and fall man's moral and religious needs were such as to require the rest and worship of one day in seven, since the fall, these needs having increased a thousand fold, the requirement of the Sabbath to meet them cannot be less. The neglect or misuse of the Sabbath is a sin, not so much because an institution has been neglected or abused as because the inherent and constitutional needs of man's moral and religious nature have not been supplied. History is in evidence that whenever and wherever the Sabbath has been abused or neglected, spiritual poverty has followed. It was not without cause that the prophets of Israel complained of the laxness with which the people of their times observed the Sabbath. Looking back over the periods covered by those generations, it is as clear as noonday that moral decline, spiritual destitution and social and national disintegration were very largely traceable to disregard for the Sabbath. And as St. Paul has wisely said: "These things are examples to us." Not anything could be more baneful to the Church of God in this generation than the loss of the Christian Sabbath. And yet in these days of absorption in material affairs, we are seriously threatened with its loss. Though closely safeguarded by legal enactment as a day of rest from business pursuits and manual labors it is fast losing its divine sanctity with the masses and becoming a holiday for social dissipations and worldly pleasures. And in the mind of your committee the time has come when the Sabbath must be more closely safeguarded as a day of worship and communion with God. And that cannot be done by our lawmakers. It must be done by the Church. Nothing short of the gospel of Jesus Christ faithfully and fearlessly preached and reinforced by the moral suasion of consecrated and stainless lives is adequate to such a work.

Your committee had submitted to it the following memorial from the Winona District Conference, which it heartily offers for your adoption:

Whereas, the Sabbath is a divine institution and gift, furnishing us our only adequate time and opportunity for religious development and culture and for the reaching and saving the non-Christian masses.

And whereas, the Sabbath is being desecrated by our railroad authorities in the running of extra passenger trains and offering lower rates to the traveling public, thereby employing more men in train service than would otherwise be necessary and inducing thousands of our people to travel on that holy day who otherwise might be induced to remain at home with their families and attend public worship; be it therefore,

Resolved, That the Winona District Conference memorialize the North Mississippi Annual Conference at its next session at Sardis, Miss., to petition the legislators of our state, if within their legislative prerogatives, to pass such laws as may be necessary to prohibit the running of extra passenger trains and the offering of reduced rates to the traveling public within the geographical limits of our state on the holy Sabbath.

That we ask the Mississippi Annual Conference and all other Christian organizations within our territorial boundaries to join us in this petition.

D. M. GEDDIE, for Committee.

Bible Cause—The American Bible Society Board made the following report, which was read and adopted:

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

The Word of God placed in the hands of all men and lived in the lives of all, is the goal of the Church. For this the Church exists and to this end all of the institutions of the Church are organized. The American Bible Society is the most effective agency with which to distribute the Bible in all lands. The society was organized in 1816 for the purpose of printing and distributing the Bible without any thought of commercial profit. In ninety-four years it has printed and distributed 87,296,182 volumes. Last year it printed and circulated 2,826,831 volumes, about equally divided between home and foreign lands. The presses are now issuing more than 100,000 Bibles every working day. In Mississippi the Methodist Church leads all others in contributions. We are glad to report a goodly interest manifested in the North Mississippi Conference. We have this year paid on our assessment $1,028.27, which is an increase over last year of $19.95. We recommend the same assessment as last year, $1,200.00, and ask that it be apportioned as it was last year.

We are pleased to have with us Dr. Geo. S. J. Brown, Field Secretary. Your Board is indebted to him for much valuable information and wise counsel.

S. A. BROWN, Secretary.

MEMOIRS.

Rev. K. A. Jones.

Rev. Kenneth Alexander Jones, son of Rev. Ransom J. Jones, Sr., and Effie McInnis Jones, was born in Jasper County, Miss., February 2, 1836, and died in the home of his son, Capt. Harvey J. Jones, Sumner, Miss., February 16, 1910.

He was licensed to preach September 16, 1855, and in November of the same year, he was admitted on trial into the Mississippi Conference at Vicksburg, Bishop Kavanaugh presiding.

He was admitted into full connection at Brandon and ordained deacon by Bishop Early in 1857, and ordained elder by Bishop Paine at Canton, in 1861.

During the fifty-four years of service in the gospel ministry, his appointments were as follows: 1856, Paulding Circuit as junior preacher, with J. R. Thomas; his father, R. J. Jones, being presiding elder; 1857, Pearl River Circuit, with H. M. Youngblood; 1858, Brandon Circuit, with Jas. A. Godfrey; 1859, Philadelphia Circuit; 1860, local; 1861, Westville Circuit; 1862, Paulding Circuit; 1863, Augusta Mission; 1864, Beaver Dam Mission; 1865, Handsboro District; 1866-67-68-69, Starkville District; 1870, Starkville and Pierce Chapel.

At the close of this year the North Mississippi Conference was organized, of which he became a member and served the following charges, viz.:

1871-72, Black Hawk Circuit; 1873-74-75, Yazoo District; 1876-77, Black Hawk Circuit; 1878-79-80-81, Winona District; 1882, Grenada District; 1883-84, Wood Street, Water Valley; 1885-86-87, Senatobia Station; 1888-89-90, Hernando and Coldwater; 1891-92-93-94, Crawford Circuit; 1895-96-97, McNutt; 1898-99, Okolona Station; 1900-01-02, Ripley and New Albany; 1903-04-05-06, Prairie Circuit; 1907-08-09, Sidon and Tchula.

At the close of 1909, being "worn out in the itinerant service" and in feeble health, he was granted an honorable superannuate relation by the Conference held in Okolona, and gracefully retired from the active ministry, after more than a half century of faithful service.

Though he had been for some time in declining health, little did we think that this would be his last meeting with us in Conference session on earth. But so it was to be. In a little more than two months' time the news was flashed over the country that our esteemed brother had suddenly and unexpectedly departed this life after a brief illness.

"The voice at midnight came;
He started up to hear;
A mortal arrow pierced his frame,
He fell; but felt no fear."

His last words were: "Oh, Lord, be merciful to your old servant. Take him and keep him." And our faith is that, as he rests from his loved employ, his soul enjoys the full fruition of the blessed Christian hope he so long and earnestly preached to others. His body was buried at Crawford, Miss., beside his wife and daughter, after funeral services conducted by Rev. T. H. Dorsey, assisted by Revs. T. C. Weir, R. M. Evans and N. G. Augustus.

Brother Jones was a good preacher and pastor, a faithful servant of the Church and of the Master who called him to the office and work of the ministry.

In all the conditions and relations of life, the spirit of kindness, gentleness and patience was manifested in his demeanor. With a sunny countenance and words of good-will, cheer and comfort for everybody, his presence, whether in the church, home or social circle, was ever pleasant and inspiring. He was of a family of preachers. His father, Ransom J. Jones, Sr., and younger brother, Ransom J. Jones, Jr., were prominent members of the Mississippi Conference, each one of them serving a term in the presiding eldership, and the youngest brother, W. B. Jones, is now presiding elder on the Seashore District.

Brother Jones was married December 29, 1857, to Miss Lucinda McCormick, who died October 10, 1906. To them were born five sons and five daughters, all of whom are yet living, excepting three daughters who preceded the parents to "the better land." May the whole family be reunited in the Father's many-mansioned house in heaven. We deplore the loss of our brother to our fellowship on earth, but hope to meet him in the Church triumphant in heaven.

Rev. John C. Lowe.

It is with sorrow that we record the death of our beloved brother and co-laborer, Rev. J. C. Lowe, a veteran member of the North Mississippi Conference and a superannuate since the session of his Conference at Columbus, Miss., in December, 1907.

He died at his home, in Monteagle, Tenn., Sunday morning, February 27, 1910. He had not seemed well for some three weeks, and during the last week of this time had suffered greatly from heart trouble. On the Sunday morning mentioned he had eaten his breakfast, and was sitting near the fire, when, with an exclamation and call to his wife, who was in the room, he passed away, "without a groan or struggle." His end was peaceful after much suffering." After appropriate funeral services in the home, conducted by Rev. W. W. Alexander, of Vanderbilt University and pastor at Monteagle, he was laid to rest in the village cemetery.

Rev. John C. Lowe, son of Henry and Mary Lowe, was born in Queen Anne County, Md., March 28, 1834. He was united in marriage to Miss Mary A. Hinton, November 21, 1872, near Forrest City, Ark. Besides his now lone companion, Sister Lowe, two daughters survive him.

Brother Lowe was converted in Baltimore in 1852. He was licensed to preach by the fourth Quarterly Conference of Asbury charge, Memphis, Tenn., October 19, 1860, L. D. Mullins presiding elder. The year following he served as a supply and junior preacher on Concordia Circuit, with C. C. Glover as preacher in charge. He was received on trial into the Memphis Conference November 20, 1861, and sent again to Concordia Circuit as junior preacher, with Rev. G. W. Bachman as preacher in charge. Brother Bachman says: "We soon became closely attached to each other; but in a few months he accepted a chaplaincy in the army, where he remained until the next Conference, when he returned to the pastorate and was again sent to Concordia as preacher in charge."

The two following years he served Friars Point Circuit, making five successive years in what is now known as the Delta country. "The white population was sparse, but mostly of a high-toned and intelligent class of people, with whom Brother Lowe was very popular as a man and preacher. He ranked well in his class as a preacher. He was of a social disposition and very diligent in his pastoral duties, specially looking after the sick, distressed, and poor of his charge. He studied carefully the doctrines and polity of the Church, and became an able expounder of the Word of God and defender of Methodism. "He was a good man, true to the high calling of God in Christ Jesus, and has gone to the home of the faithful."

Rev. J. C. Lowe was a high-toned Christian gentleman, a man of dignified and striking personality, and yet of a genial and affable spirit. He was a good and indulgent husband, and a kind and devoted father.

In a notice of his death and character the New Orleans Advocate offers to his great worth this well-deserved tribute: "During the many years of his active service he filled a number of important appointments, and was a diligent and effective worker. He was well educated, possessed a strong and vigorous intellect, and was a forceful and impressive preacher. His style was expository, and few men had a more comprehensive grasp of the fundamental doctrines of the Church."

During his sixth year in the ministry he filled Jackson Station, in Tennessee. On the organization of the North Mississippi Conference in 1870, he became a member of this Conference, serving among other charges Okolona, Iuka and Corinth. He was for two years a supernumerary, and in the fall of 1879 was transferred to the Holston Conference. Here he served Marion Station, Wytheville Station, and other charges. He was a superannuate one year. His last appointment in this Conference, Bakersville Station, he did not fill on account of poor health.

In the fall of 1886 he was transferred back to the North Mississippi Conference. From this time on for twenty-one years he was continuously effective, following his "loved employ," the gospel ministry, in the service of the Church and of our Lord, in heat and in cold, sometimes, it may be, faint, yet still pursuing, ever constant, ever loyal and true. With his last appointment, Cedar Bluff, he closed his active ministry in the latter part of 1907.

A letter from his pastor, Rev. W. W. Alexander, speaks of our ascended brother and the closing scene in kind and tender words: "Brother Lowe had endeared himself to the people at Monteagle. In the community generally he was held in great respect. * * * In our church he was a favorite with every one. His presence and prayers were a benediction to our services. His last days were peaceful ones. He often spoke of going, and assured me about a week before he died that he was ready to go or remain, as it pleased the Master. The final summons came suddenly. There was no word of testimony, no time to say farewell. No testimony he might have given could have added to the abundant testimony of his godly life among us."

Rev. L. D. Worsham.

The Rev. Lorenzo Dow Worsham, son of Henry and Sarah Worsham, was born in Pontotoc, in Pontotoc County, Miss., January 18, 1847. His family was one of the oldest and best in that part of the state. He received his education in the common schools of his native county, and was clearly and consciously converted, and gave his life to God in August, 1868. As experience in conversion types one's theology and emphasizes certain vital phases of the gospel and turns the soul to steadfastly behold that which in its own knowledge is of first concern, so Brother Worsham's very radical and powerful conversion, so marvelously transforming his own nature, ideals and experience, gave him a profound sense of sin and salvation and made of him a stirring revival preacher of rare gifts and power.

Brother Worsham had an abiding and all-conquering faith in the power of salvation as set forth in Jesus. He knew from personal experience what it is and what it will do for lost men. His individual knowledge of redemption and his personal fellowship with Jesus Christ touched his voice, vision and message with the winning and convincing power of the gospel. His own life turned upon a clear noonday vision of his Lord in an unmistakable voice of forgiveness and peace from heaven to his soul.

Brother Worsham was licensed to preach October 29, 1869, at Shiloh Church, Pontotoc Circuit, A. C. Allen being presiding elder.

He was admitted on trial into the North Mississippi Conference at Water Valley, Miss., November, 1870. So he was a charter member of our Conference, the Conference being organized at that session. He was received into full connection at Corinth, Miss., November, 1872, and ordained deacon by Bishop Kavanaugh; was ordained elder by Bishop Paine at Macon, Miss., December, 1878. Brother Worsham served the following appointments: 1871, Austin and Trotter's Landing; 1872, Mayhew Circuit; 1873, Vinton Circuit; 1874, Perkinsville Circuit; 1875-76, Bellefontaine Circuit; 1877, Fulton Circuit; 1878, Athens Circuit; 1879-80, Shannon Circuit; 1881-83, Emory Circuit; 1884, Starkville Circuit; 1885-86, Chester Circuit; 1887-88, Sturgis Circuit. In 1889 he was transferred to the Little Rock Conference and stationed at Cleveland, Ark., and in 1890 he served at Richmond Station, in the same Conference. At the end of that year his health was gone, and not expecting to live long, his mind turned back to the warm love and fraternal comradeship he had left behind in his native state, and in the fall of 1890 he came back to his first love and was appointed to Newport Circuit. In a year his health was so far restored that he was enabled to continue his itinerant labors and served as follows: 1892, Ethel Circuit; 1893-94, Lexington and Tehula; 1895-96, Byhalia Circuit; 1897, Potts' Camp Circuit; 1898-1900, Eureka Circuit; 1901, Longtown Circuit; 1902, Main Street, Water Valley; 1903-06, Cedar Bluff Circuit; 1907-08, Hebron Circuit; 1909-10, Mathiston Circuit, where he fell at the post of duty June 20, 1910. He died of congestion after a few days' illness, honored and loved by all who knew him.

On October 19, 1872, Brother Worsham was happily married to Miss Ella F. Hogan, of Starkville, Miss. Of this union one child was born, Rosa Lee. She was permitted to live with them on earth but eleven beautiful summers, and then God plucked the flower and planted it in the fadeless garden of His love beyond the skies. This deep sorrow was a crushing blow. Often have I heard him speak of that trial and loss with choking voice, and then of the assured joy of meeting her in heaven. Sister Worsham, a noble woman, a true helpmeet, a heroine indeed of marked strength, who was for twenty-eight years his worthy companion, who shared with him the privations, burdens, sacrifices, heartaches and joys of the itinerant life, still survives, with an adopted daughter, Hattie Bell, to mourn the loss of husband and father. The adopted daughter was taken from the Orphans' Home in 1898 to take the place of Rosa Lee, gone to heaven.

As an itinerant preacher Brother Worsham was true, faithful, loyal and heroic. No place was too hard, no people too poor, no trials too severe for his love and fidelity. He traveled the hardest circuits, poorest missions, compassed the widest fields, and lived on the smallest salaries, and denied himself and family, oftentimes, the common necessities of life, and still kept young and sweet spirited, in love with his Church, his brethren, the itinerancy and the world. As a preacher of the Word he was unique, powerful, and oftentimes well nigh overwhelming. He was a very gifted man, endowed nobly by nature with splendid mentality, fine voice and personal appearance, gifts of imagination and speech, a radiant soul, an emotional nature, a consuming passion to see men saved. He was fashioned for rhythm, music and song. He saw visions that dull men never behold. He heard harmonies that never smite a heavy ear. He dwelt on mountain heights never attained by prosaic men. As his presiding elder for four years, I know that all he wanted was what we call the hardest places—circuits and missions where a living is bare, but where there are lots of people, and he could have the opportunity of preaching to the neglected and lost and have the joy of seeing them converted. Preaching in camp meetings and great revivals was his special forte. He was at home and happy as mortal could be when the people began to move toward God. He knew the way to the heart with his gospel call. He was mighty in exhortation, in prayer and in song. There were few crowds he could not stir from the pulpit or on his knees in prayer. Like an electric shock, all hearts would be thrilled at once—some to repentance and cries for mercy, others with joy and ecstasy would break into tears and shouting till all around was a tabernacle of the Most High.

Sometimes he could preach like a visitant from the upper world. His voice was like a clarion, but full and resonant and on fire with the flames of his consuming passion of love. His speech was rapid, rhythmical and luminous—illustration, scripture, poetry of the most fitting kind, all fell into their place by masterful touch in his sermons. During his forty years' ministry there is no guessing how many souls he led to Christ, but hundreds and thousands surely.

Just before he passed away he recognized that the end was near. He called his loved ones to his bed and bade them farewell in the midst of tears and weeping, but assured them of his peace and trust and home on the other side. Then he looked toward the window and said: "What are those soldiers doing there?" Some one said: "There are no soldiers here." "Yes," he repeated, "there is one standing by the window."

"Soldier of Christ, well done,
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy."

If a star is added to our crown for each soul we assist and help to save, oh, what a crown he wears today in the City of God. There must have been a stir in heaven that day when it was announced that he was coming in. The thousands he had led to Christ must have shouted to see him.

Rev. Q. A. Oats.

The subject of this sketch, the Rev. Quincy Anderson, eldest son of Parham Y. and Nancy S. Oats, was born in Moore County, N. C., May 2, 1849. From his strong Scotch-Irish ancestry of purest strain he inherited the red blood of iron and strength which made his whole life the positive power it was for truth and righteousness. He was a live man, a broad man, a real man, a true man, great in his love for men, great in unswerving fidelity to conscience and truth, great and exalted in the solidity of his character and the principles of his conduct. While yet a lad unsettled in life's devious ways and uneducated, the horrors of the Civil War broke upon the country, and living in a section successively overrun by the armies of both sides, and infested with bushwhackers and the general rendezvous of deserters, his young life could scarcely have held well defined plans as to its future direction. The close of the war found his father with a large family to care for, and nothing left but the bare, rocky soil, even his home and all outhouses having been swept away by the flames of the enemy's fire. But young Quincy was manifestly full of the restless energy, ambition and purpose which were the abiding and controlling forces in his character throughout his eventful career. Unwilling to sit down in the ashes of defeat, amid the charred ruins, desolations and hardships the war had wrought and repine over the hopeless outlook, he arose in the strength of manly courage and noble purpose, and entered the long, hard struggle for life's higher ends and aims. The way he chose was not easy, but rugged and thorny. In his native county or surrounding country there was no school which met his ideal. So he at once set out to South Carolina and entered there a school of character. Here he not only advanced in his studies, but sustained himself financially, and, moreover, rendered material aid by his industry and frugality to the loved ones at home. His education was thus prosecuted under heavy disadvantages.

While his literary training was not fully collegiate, it was more than academic. To these years of hard work and study in his preparation for life, Brother Oats added all the years of his active and strenuous life on earth. He was a diligent and painstaking student of all facts and truth. He had a wonderful gift of devouring and assimilating books and facts. His information was various, wonderfully accurate and minute, extending over the broad range of philosophy, history, literature and theology. Brother Oats was clearly converted and gave his life fully and forever to God in his native county and State, September, 1858, at the age of nine years, and connected himself with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the same time and place.

In his young manhood he came to this Mississippi Delta with a North Carolina friend to manage a large plantation in the region of Webb. Life there was crowded with hardships, privations, and much serious and fatal illness to the whites. His friend he lost the first year, and, added to this severe grief, his own life was much broken by disease and trial. He had brought his church letter with him from his old home in North Carolina and put it in the nearest church, which was twelve miles distant. These were conditions that tried men's souls. Young Oats was tempted, but "none of these things moved him." They could not weaken the moral fibre of a soul so strong, nor scathe a mind so high and pure. As evidence of this he applied and was licensed to preach at Brooklyn Church November 12, 1871. He was admitted on trial into the North Mississippi Conference at Corinth, Miss., December 5, 1872; received into full connection at Aberdeen, Miss., 1874, and at the same time and place ordained deacon by Bishop Doggett; ordained elder by Bishop Pierce, Sardis, Miss., November 26, 1876. In the fall of 1889 there was great need of preachers in the far West, so Bishop Galloway transferred Brother Oats to California, and stationed him at Santa Anna, in the Los Angeles Conference.

From that he filled successively the following charges in that Western frontier: Norwalk, San Luis Obispo, Lampre, Santa Barbara District, San Bernardino, and the city of Prescott, Arizona. Then, in 1899, he became heart-hungry for the warm and loving friends he left in his old Conference, the fellowship sweeter to his great soul than life itself. So he was transferred back to the North Mississippi Conference. In November, 1876, Brother Oats was happily married to Miss Ida Collier, near Webb, Miss. This beautiful union of hearts and lives was but brief, for in less than two years his happy bride was ruthlessly snatched from his bosom by death. With her going his life became sad and lonely. But on January 29, 1882, in Woodville, Miss., he was happily and fortunately married to Miss Alice A. Coleman, an accomplished and noble woman of large mind and heart, and of literary culture. She was at the time a teacher in Edward McGehee College. She and two children, both grown—Mrs. Carroll Clark, of Verona, Miss., and Prof. Coleman Oats—are left to mourn the irreparable loss of husband and father. Brother Oats' life was spent in hard and difficult places, with slight remuneration. Many of his first and best years were spent in the Mississippi Delta. He was a pioneer there in planting and organizing Methodism in that fertile but hard and inhospitable field. He endured hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ, and, like Paul, he could say: "None of these things move me." His work, too, in California, was very hard pioneer work on the firing lines of Southern Methodism's advancing hosts. It required a man of heroic spirit, daring courage, and unfaltering fidelity to conscience and truth to meet the issue and save the day. He was real and genuine. He could not play hide-and-seek with truth and right. His convictions were sacred—as inviolate as his soul. He could no more tolerate a sham than be a sham himself. To him life and religion were one. A man who knew him well remarked: "His life is greater than any sermon preached on earth. As a minister he honored his calling, served his Lord and his generation with whole-hearted devotion and singular fidelity. The gospel to him was the only plan by which the lost could be saved. Men were fallen and ruined by sin, but Jesus could save unto the utmost. His style was textual and expository. He would turn a flood of light on the Word from the Word itself. But he could also use other sources of light to make luminous the whole truth. He was strong, original, logical and convincing.

As a friend he was natural, unaffected, unselfish, generous, confiding. He was not always understood, but there was no manlier man, no truer soul, no knightlier spirit. He was a man who combined in himself uncompromising truth, luminous virtues, granite principles and mountain visions. As a father and husband he was kind, proud, thoughtful, gentle and gracious. As a man, minister, citizen, he filled the sphere of a genuine soul. He could not be controlled by majorities unless they were right. He did his own thinking and did it honestly, sincerely and profoundly, and lived and wrought exactly as he thought. Neither his life nor his preaching ever lowered the standard of manhood or the character of the gospel.

While on the Pacific coast his ability was fully recognized by other churches larger and more influential than his own, and more than once was he offered other pulpits and nearly three times the salary he was getting; but to one of his fidelity and convictions this was no temptation. Brother Oats' health began to fail very rapidly after the Okolona Conference, December, 1909. At that Conference he was appointed to Louisville, having finished his third year in Shuqualak. But his people loved him so devotedly they said they could not give him up, so they set to work at once with great zeal to effect an exchange by which their most beloved pastor might remain with them and fill out his quadrennium. His exchange was effected and the man of God began his fourth year's work among the people who knew and loved him so truly and devotedly. The work was heavy and the three previous years had wrecked his constitution. His good wife and friends soon discovered he was giving away rapidly under the strain. They tried to dissuade him from going and doing so much, but he could not be checked. He went till his second Quarterly Conference, then his official board became alarmed. They raised his salary $100 and voted him a vacation of two months for rest. A trip had been hastily planned to the mountains of his native State with the hope of his restoration, but for this it was all too late—the arrow had sped to its mark, the heart's blood was ebbing away. He was carried about April 15th to the home of his daughter in Verona, Miss.; there he had the tenderest attention and most loving care. His work was done, the book of his life had been written, and God was graciously closing the volume.

Surrounded by loving and heartbroken members of his family and friends, on May 6th he breathed his last and went home to God and the angels. He died of angina pectoris.

On the Sabbath, May 8th, in the church at Verona, crowded to its utmost, amidst weeping and tears on all sides, the sad obsequies were held by the writer, assisted by several members of the Conference. This is the story of one side of his active life. The other side can never be seen, written or measured. We have lost him but for a spell. Our lives are richer and sweeter because a wise counselor, a faithful minister, a chivalrous spirit, a princely man has fallen! He knew the end was coming and talked freely and calmly about his release. He went out to meet the last enemy, met him and came off "more than conqueror." He said "There is no fear, I have set my house in order and am ready for the summons."

Rev. Matthew D. Fly.

Matthew D. Fly, son of Joshua and Sallie Fly, was born in Yalabusha County, Miss., December 16, 1835, was educated at Mount Nebo High School, in the same county; was converted at Old Salem Church in 1849; was licensed to preach in 1856; admitted on trial in the Memphis Conference at Jackson, Tenn., in 1856; received into full connection at New Orleans in 1858, and ordained deacon by Bishop Andrew. He was ordained elder by Bishop Paine at Jackson, Tenn., 1861, and died at Byhalia, Miss., November 8, 1910.

Brother Fly served his first year on the Oxford Circuit, transferring at its close to the Louisiana Conference, where he remained for three years. Returning to the Memphis Conference, he served Concordia Circuit, Davidson Chapel, Horn Lake Circuit, and Olive Branch. He was supernumerary from 1864-66. He then served Rienzi Circuit, Panola Circuit, Water Valey Station, Dancyville Circuit, Embury Circuit, Lagrange and Saulsbury. In 1872, he transferred to the Northwest Texas Conference and was stationed at Waco, Waxahatchie, Weatherford, Corsicana, Fort Worth, Lancaster, and Fort Worth Circuit. He located in 1880.

He joined the Methodist Free Church, organized by his brother, Rev. A. B. Fly, and wrought in this for some years, but returned to the M. E. Church, South, and was received into the North Mississippi Conference in 1891, serving Gunnison, Jonestown, Potts Camp, Red Banks, Pontotoc, Okolona, and Verona.

He was superannuated in 1906 and remained in this relation till the end came in 1910.

Brother Fly was ever a good preacher, but there were times when he was really a great preacher, moving people as but few men have done. He loved especially to work in camp meetings and there appeared at his best. Many souls were brought into the kingdom through his ministry. His style was altogether his own.

In 1861 he was happily married to Miss Alice Beard, proving an affectionate and faithful husband, ever loyal and true. The wife proceeded him to the better land by about six months. After her death, he began to lose interest in the things of this world and to think more about the things of heaven. The last few weeks of his life, he did not talk much of the world. When the end came, he was ready, having given explicit directions about his material affairs and his burial. He seemed to think of nothing but heaven and at ten minutes to eight on the evening of November 8, 1910, he breathed his last. His going away was as a child falling asleep. He died in peace and joy, fully conscious of the change through which he was passing.

A good man has gone, leaving a monument of good works more lasting than granite. He rests from his labors and his works do follow him. Peace to his ashes.

Mrs. Abbie J. Tucker.

The world can never know the debt it owes to the mothers of Methodism. The Susanna Wesleys, Lady Huntingdons, Barbara Hecks, and thousands of others whose names are not written on history's page but are inscribed in letters of gold in the "Book of Life," and numbered with the most precious jewels in the Home of Our Father. Such the name, the memory of Mrs. Abbie (DeLoach) Tucker, faithful wife, devoted mother, loyal sister, obedient, humble child of God.

She was born in Coosa County, Alabama, January 14, 1855, to A. W. and Theodosia (Spence) DeLoach. She was a direct descendant of the French Huguenots who came over in the early colonial days and settled in the English colonies of the Carolinas. She possessed much of that same sturdy, independent, energetic spirit that characterized the colonizers. After a few days illness from pneumonia she "sweetly fell asleep" just before midnight, January 30, 1910, while visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. Williams, Strongs, Miss. On the morning of February 1 she was laid to rest in the Booneville cemetery, mourned by a host of friends.

When she was but a young woman her parents moved from Alabama to Alcorn County, Miss. Here, September 18, 1873, she was married to Mr. H. R. Tucker by Rev. D. W. Babb. There were born to them four boys and three girls, all of whom save one survive to mourn her loss. Three sons and three daughters she lived to see grow to manhood and womanhood, the pride of her life. Two noble sons are in the itineracy, one in the North Mississippi Conference and one in the Memphis Conference, one daughter a volunteer for the mission field, each of the others loyal members of the Methodist Church.

When quite young she gave her life to God. Nothing she possessed was ever too dear for her Lord. Like Mary of old, she ever sat at the Master's feet to learn of Him. With a devoted love she freely poured out the frankincense of her life, a sweet smelling savor to her Lord.

Five years after her marriage to Mr. H. R. Tucker, he became a traveling preacher in the North Mississippi Conference. For twenty years side by side they labored in the itineracy, filling circuit, station and district charges. While serving the Corinth District Brother Tucker went Home after a few days suffering from pneumonia. Here near the sacred dust of her loved companion she made her home, and by his side we laid her body to rest. Her devotion to him was as strong as heart cords could bind, her love as tender as when a girl, the memory of him was always as fresh as if it had been but yesterday that "he left us." No mother ever loved more tenderly the child of her bosom than she did the six children who were indeed "her jewels." For them and for her Christ, it was her consuming desire to spend and be spent.

In her church life she was a vigorous, active, thorough-going worker, a real leader. Her Christian life was indeed her life, a resolute faith, a strong conviction of duty, and a deep consecration made her an effective worker in the Master's Kingdom. Wherever there was suffering and need she could be found. She was an active leader in the missionary societies, Sunday School and children's work. If her place in church and prayer meeting was vacant it meant that she was sick or away from home.

We cannot do better than to recount her virtues by the "fruits of the Spirit." Her love for God was supreme and her love for the world was as broad as humanity. Her joy was in knowing that she was doing the Master's will, and indeed none found more real joy in life than she. Hers was the "peace of God which passeth understanding," and an "abiding peace." She was honored and loved in her life, deeply mourned in her death, and her memory remains "like ointment poured forth" as a precious benediction to our church and town. She lives on in the lives she blessed. We are sad in the earthly parting. We could not but weep at the good-bye for earth and time, but how glorious the morning dawn to her weary, tired and longing soul, how happy the reunion at the "Gates of Pearl." Glorious Mother, Sister, Friend, but more glorious over there.

The report of the Board of Church Extension was read and adopted, as follows:

CHURCH EXTENSION.

We are thankful to God for the enlarged interest in this branch of missionary enterprise which is shown by the increased receipts on assessments and larger contributions to the Loan Fund. The report of the General Secretary shows an excess of $5,976 on assessments and $20,701 on the Loan Fund over any previous year. But the gains in contributions are not keeping pace with the increasing demands that are the results of a steady and vigorous growth of our Church. At the present meeting of the Board, we have had twenty-eight applications asking for $4,165, and have had but little more than half this amount to meet these worthy demands, many of which are exceedingly urgent. In many places in the great West, numbers of our people are uniting with other denominations because we have no houses of worship. In one city in the State of Washington, one church of another name and order, has 200 Southern Methodists in it because we have no building; another in Southern California has 300 in it for the same reason. These are only examples of the immediate need for houses of worship in many growing towns and cities in the bounds of our Zion.

Parsonage Work.

The last General Conference merged the Woman's Home Mission Society into the General Board of Missions and transferred the work of parsonage aid to the Board of Church Extension. In order to care for this work the General Board increased our assessment 25 per cent. Applications for aid in building parsonages must be made hereafter to this Board. The proper blanks may be had of the Secretary.

Sunday School Loan Fund.

The birthday offering from the Sunday School is directed towards the establishing of a Sunday School Loan Fund which is to be used to aid congregations to provide modern equipment for Sunday School work in connection with church building. It is also a means of educating our children and young people in the needs of Church Extension. The General Secretary will furnish your schools with the necessary jars and instructions.

Conference Board Loan Funds.

We are very desirous of increasing our Conference Loan Fund. This fund is to be loaned to churches in the bounds of our Conference at the low rate of 4 per cent. We urge our pastors to solicit for this fund wherever practicable.

Free Literature.

The General Board, realizing that the people are not sufficiently informed as to the work and needs of this Board, have provided wall charts, maps and other literature for free distribution. We respectfully request our pastors to supply all their churches with these valuable helps.

Prominence at District Conferences.

We again request the Presiding Elders to give the subject of Church Extension a prominent place on the programs of their respective District Conferences.

V. C. CURTIS, for Board.

The following appreciative resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS—BISHOP MCCOY.

Whereas, the presence and presidency of Bishop J. H. McCoy at our Conference have been an inspiration and an abiding pleasure to this body, and whereas his genial and manly spirit, his perfect courtesy, fairness and Christ-like manner have won all hearts, and his work in the pulpit and in the chair has been of the highest order and given universal satisfaction; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we express to Bishop McCoy our sincere and unqualified appreciation of his uniform kindness, great wisdom and warm-hearted brotherliness in the conduct of the business of the Conference and earnestly ask his return to us at our next Conference and whenever he can come this way. We urge the College of Bishops in their May meeting to grant our desires, if in their wisdom it seems best.

L. M. LIPSCOMB,
J. M. WYATT,
A. W. LANGLEY.

The Conference adopted the following report of the Committee on Books and Periodicals:

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The General Conference by a remarkable vote, which was practically unanimous, again entrusted to the capable hands of Messrs. Smith & Lamar our great publishing house and its varied interests. These brethren have demonstrated by their past conduct their worthiness of the confidence thus manifested, and their ability to conduct this great business enterprise of the Church ably and faithfully, is shown by their exhibit, which has been referred to us.

The Christian Advocate, under the direction of its new editor, Dr. Thos. N. Ivey, has maintained the high standard for which it has long been noted, and the changes he has made in it mark a distinct advance in the direction of modern newspaper building.

The Methodist Review is fortunate in having Dr. Gross Alexander continued as its editor. Under his control the Review has gained and held a degree of popularity never before enjoyed, and its general circulation would confer a vast benefit upon the Church.

The Sunday School periodicals continue to grow in popularity, circulation and merit, which reflects great credit on Dr. E. B. Chappell and his able coadjutors in that important field. Modern methods and sound teaching are essential to the spiritual health of the Church of tomorrow, which is to be composed of the Sunday School scholars of today. This need we are glad to note is being supplied by our Sunday School Department.

The Epworth Era could not have been placed in more sympathetic hands than Dr. F. S. Parker's, who has for some years been connected with that paper and the department it represents. The Era is full each week of matter of practical value to leaguers.

Our publishing house has recently issued an attractive volume whose authorship commends it in a special sense to this Conference. It is "Conscience and Its Culture," by T. H. Lipscomb, a very accomplished member of this Conference. We earnestly hope that this book on so important a subject will have the wide reading which its merit warrants.

The New Orleans Christian Advocate, under the direction of our own Dr. R. A. Meek, cannot be commended too highly. We desire to employ, and make our own, the language of the Joint Publishing Committee on this subject, as follows:

Dr. Meek took charge as editor last January, and with what success he has done his work, all who read the paper know. His work thus far shows that he is worthy to rank among the great and chosen editors whose writings have adorned this paper and made it a powerful agency for more than fifty years. His style is clear, forceful and chaste, while the matter of his utterances is important and instructive. He is true to the doctrine and polity of the Church and has proved himself an able defender of both. He fights no dead devils, but finds enough to engage his zeal and effort in the world of today. He is at once conservative and properly progressive. We admire the fine courtesy and charity displayed toward Christians of other communions, and also the genuine loyalty exhibited toward his own. Any one may see in the pages of the Advocate manifested its spirit of true religion. The editor has a large acquaintance with public matters, and men and affairs pass under his judicious review. Thoughtful people can read the paper with approval. It is a fact, too, that the quantity of original reading matter has been much increased, until now it is not excelled in this regard, nor in any other, by any published by the Church.

From the very first issue under his editorship Dr. Meek has displayed conspicuous ability, and the brilliancy and fidelity of his subsequent work has confirmed the wisdom of his selection for this important post in the amplest degree. We hereby pledge him our most cordial support in his efforts to extend the circulation of the Advocate.

We recommend for re-election as our representatives on the Publishing Committee of the New Orleans Christian Advocate J. T. Murrah, W. W. Woollard and H. S. Spragins.

We cordially commend the faithful services of Rev. G. W. Bachman, whose work as colporter is of such great value to the work of the Church. We commend him to our brethren in every charge with the full assurance that he will be a blessing to them in their labors. Brother Bachman's report for the past year is as follows:

Book sales North Mississippi Conference.....	$1,588.17
Book sales Mississippi Conference.....	1,119.17

Total	$2,707.34
Subscriptions to Church papers.....	$150.60
Subscriptions to Sunday School periodicals.....	239.08

We recommend his reappointment.

J. D. BARBEE, Chairman.

A collection amounting to $50.75 was taken for the relief of J. M. Huggin.

By unanimous vote the Conference adopted the following resolutions of Thanks:

THANKS.

Resolved, That we do hereby express our sincere thanks to the good people of Sardis for throwing open their doors to the members and visitors of our Conference and for their unstinted hospitality; to the other churches and their pastors for their fraternal courtesies and co-operation; to the choir for their service of song; to the pastor, Dr. J. The committee offered, and the Conference adopted, the following report on Spiritual Interests:

SPIRITUAL INTERESTS.

In considering the spiritual condition of the Church within our bounds, we find cause for profound gratitude to our Lord that the insidious influence of worldliness, the most subtle and relentless foe to spirituality, does not prevail so extensively as in former years. The expulsive force of a new and holy affection, which is ever needed to keep the life of God in the soul of man, reigns in the hearts of many, who formerly were self centered instead of being Christ centered. We rejoice to note that others are striving to obtain the prize of our high calling of God in Christ Jesus, which is the coronation of our higher nature with the diadem of godliness. There has been a great spiritual awakening resulting in an increase of membership of 2,249. We had 5,000 accessions to the Church. We deplore the fact that the sanctities of the family altar do not dominate the hearts of parents to the extent that its importance demands. Recognizing the home to be the power house where may be generated moral or immoral life force, which flows there from to bless or curse humanity, we deem it imperative that strenuous effort be constantly made to maintain a vital connection between this citadel of power and Christ Jesus our Lord, the source of all true wisdom and strength. To accomplish this much desired end, family altars must be erected in every home, where night and morning holy incense of love and praise shall ascend to our Heavenly Father for all His goodness to the children of men. We might thereby implant in the souls of those who go forth from its sacred precincts seeds of godliness that will form strong characters capable of successfully solving the great social, financial, and moral problems that confront us today. We insist that ministers and lay leaders ever inculcate by precept and example a high standard of civic and ecclesiastical righteousness, and never allow our ideal of a holy life, to fall below that held up our Saviour Himself.

EUGENE JOHNSON.

The Conference directed the Secretary to incorporate in the journal the following report in regard to the Laymen's Movement:

LAYMEN'S MOVEMENT:

Your Committee of Laymen beg to report as follows:

First—We believe the every-member canvass seeking to secure weekly offering for missions from every Southern Methodist will enable us to do our share in evangelizing the world at home and abroad, and it will eventually solve most of the financial problems of the Church and we hereby pledge our laymen to the full co-operation with our pastors in carrying it into effect.

Second—We believe the duplex envelope is the simplest and most effective device for collecting missionary money and the current expenses of the Church, and we urge its general adoption.

Third—We recommend that the Conference Lay Leader, District Leader and Church Leader be made members ex officio to the District Conference, and we urge that our laymen see that the salaries of all pastors be paid monthly.

Fourth—We believe that the laymen should take a more active part in every department of Church work at home and abroad, and we urge them to take upon themselves the collection of all Church finances and to see that the financial obligations of the Church are fully met.

Fifth—We believe that the cause of missions, as well as the general spiritual and financial interests of the Church, can be greatly advanced by holding a service in each church every Sunday either by the preacher in charge or by laymen or local preacher under the direction of the preacher in charge within the bounds of the Conference.

Sixth—We most respectfully request the Presiding Elders to place greater stress at the District Conference upon the study of the plans and purposes of the Laymen's Missionary Movement and to the discussion and adoption of a more uniform and complete financial system. We further request that the Presiding Elders in their visitation call special attention to the duties of the laymen in the District Conference proceedings and we here pledge our co-operation in this work.

Seventh—We express our sincere thanks to Brother G. L. Jones, Conference Lay Leader, for his faithful service to the Master and his loyalty to our Church.

H. S. GUNN.
